UPSC Mains Syllabus for IAS Exam

The IAS mains exam comprises nine theory papers and marks in seven of those papers are taken into consideration for preparing the final merit list. The other two papers, English and Indian Language, are qualifying in nature (candidates have to score 25% or above to be eligible for selection). The UPSC mains syllabus for 2023 is discussed below and aspirants can also download the IAS syllabus (<https://byjus.com/ias/upsc-syllabus/>) in pdf form.

The UPSC Notification (<https://byjus.com/free-ias-prep/upsc-notifications/>) for the year 2023 will be released on 1st February 2023. The candidates who are planning to appear for this year's exam can check out the linked article to download the notification PDF to know more information related to the exam.

The candidates who score above the cut-off in the first stage (Prelims) of the IAS exam (<https://byjus.com/ias-exam/>) only will be eligible for the Mains. While only objective-type (MCQs) questions are asked in Prelims, the subjective Mains exam requires a deeper understanding of the topics.

Serious IAS aspirants must already be aware that UPSC Civil Services Exam (<https://byjus.com/civil-services-exam/>) 2023 calendar (latest) states that the Prelims will be held on 28th May 2023, and the Mains will commence from September 2023, onwards. However, the UPSC Mains 2022 were held from 16th September 2022, onwards. This gives enough time to prepare the comprehensive exam syllabus.

UPSC Mains Syllabus

Language Papers (Indian language and English)

Although both these papers are only qualifying in nature, candidates should not be complacent as if they fail to score below 25% in either of them, their remaining answer sheets won't even be evaluated. Both the papers follow a similar pattern of questions as given below.

- One essay question for 100 marks – candidates have to select one out of a few given topics
- Reading comprehension and related five-six questions for a total of 60 marks
- Precis writing for 60 marks – the answer sheet will have a separate grid structure where this has to be written
- Translation from English to chosen language for 20 marks
- Translation from chosen language to English for 20 marks
- Grammar and basic language usage such as synonyms, sentence correction etc. for a total of 40 marks

UPSC Mains paper gives an opportunity to candidates where can opt for subjects under a few sections. This acts as an advantage for the aspirants can they can pick their strengths and increase their overall scores.
